PASTOR'S NOTES . . .

The Church sees the wedding feast at Cana as the third part of the Epiphany, that is, the manifestation of the divinity of Christ. The first part was the appearance of the magi at Christ's birth. The second was the revelation of Trinitarian love at Christ's baptism at the Jordan.

The Church sees in Jesus' presence at this wedding feast "the confirmation of the goodness of marriage and the proclamation that thenceforth marriage will be an efficacious sign of Christ's presence"

Marriage in itself is a fundamental human good. Christ raises this good to make it a sacrament, that is, a reality that is both a symbol or image of Christ's grace and something that brings Christ's grace into the world. This confirmation and proclamation are sealed by Christ's miracle, in which he transformed water into a great deal of "good" wine. Just as Christ brought more good to the wedding feast through his miracle, Christ's sacrament of matrimony brings much more good to natural marriage. These quotations from the Catechism illustrate the deep meaning of today's Gospel reading.

Marriage in the Lord

Marriage is the freely chosen, exclusive, and lifelong union of a man and woman. This union is a privileged participation in God's original covenant with mankind: friendship between God and each person.

God and his people, Israel, entered a "nuptial covenant." Christ has established a "new and everlasting" nuptial covenant with humanity: "the Son of God, by becoming incarnate and giving his life, has united to himself in a certain way all mankind saved by him, thus preparing for 'the wedding-feast of the Lamb'."

"Christian marriage" is "an efficacious sign, the sacrament of the covenant of Christ and the Church. Since it signifies and communicates grace, marriage between baptized persons is a true sacrament of the New Covenant."

In a sense, every Christian is married, either to one's spouse in the Lord or to the Lord as a member of the Church: "Already Baptism, the entry into the People of God, is a nuptial mystery; it is so to speak the nuptial bath which precedes the wedding feast, the Eucharist"
