PASTORS NOTES

The Bottom line: Martha wanted Jesus to listen to her, while Mary wanted to listen to Jesus.

Today we see two sisters - Martha and Mary. They represent two different approaches to Jesus. He says to her: "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things."

Almost everyone (including me) identifies with Martha. We have work to do, problems on our mind, things to finish before we can relax. When we try to pray, our minds are filled with a dozen distractions. We remember a phone call we should make, something we need to get at the store, something that just can't wait. And - God forgive us - like Martha we sometimes put down the "Mary's" in our world: "It must be nice. Look at all the stuff I have to do. I wish I could get a break."

All of us know deep down that the best gift we can give someone is not money or things. That would be wonderful, but we want something else. When you and I think about our lives, we recognize that the best gift someone ever gave us was this: undistracted listening. My friend Linda is like that. She knows how to just listen without judging. That is the gift Mary gave to Jesus. Martha was busy doing something for Jesus - and, to accomplish it, she wanted Jesus to listen to her. Mary on the other hand, just wanted to listen to Jesus. "Mary," said Jesus, "has chosen the better part."

In our human relationships (friend to friend, husband to wife, parent to child) we can easily recognize the power of listening. Something similar applies to prayer. Jesus has all the time in the world to listen to you or me. He comes from the point of view of eternity, which by definition is unending. The problem is not on Jesus' side. He can listen to each one, all day and all night. The problem is on our side. We are reluctant to do what Mary did - to put aside other activities and to just listen to the voice of the Lord.

Just to sum up: Martha is an ordinary person - and all of us can identify with her desire to get things done. Still, she also has a shortcoming that we can equally identify with - her anxiety to have others (including Jesus) listen to her. Mary, on the other hand, simply listened to Jesus. And "Mary has chosen the better part," says Jesus, "and it will not be taken from her."

VOCATION VOICE

We are like Martha. There is plenty to be anxious about, but only one thing is required of us. For a few minutes today, be like Mary. Rest with Jesus; ask him what he requires of you.

Parish Social Concerns Committee: This group needs some extra helpers. Several ladies are no longer on the committee and we could use some extra names to call on when we have events...contact Julie Haslag at 573-338-5127 or juliehaslag@gmail.com. Thank you!

ANNUNCIATION PARISH ACTIVITIES

Wonder how you can do corporal works of mercy in today's world? Moniteau Christian Ministries Center (MCMC) provides clothing and food for citizens of Moniteau County. Project Share is a resell it shop; whose profits partially fund the food pantry. Project Share is in need of at least two people (more are welcome) who are willing to donate 3 hours once a month to work in their resell-it shop. Our church works either on Thursdays or Saturdays. Please call or text Ruth Ann Jobe (573-230-6625) or rjobe82782@aol.com if you would be willing to help this charitable cause.

SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES!!!!

After six years of coordinating the parish picnic, I am going to step away in order to be able to focus my efforts in the parish religious education program working with PSR and Confirmation. These programs will require more time in the spring of the year and that is when the picnic planning is busy. Please contact me if you are interested and have any questions.

The PSR program is needing help in several grades for the upcoming fall program. The diocese requires 2 adults in each classroom and I need help with 1st, 2nd, and EDGE (middle school). Please contact me if you are interested and have any questions. Ruthie Adams, 573-230-5596

For King and Country will be at the State Fair on Thursday, August 15th at 7:30 pm in the Pepsi Grandstands. Also Matt Mayer will be there. Any NCYC participant should remember these awesome performers. If you get a chance, go see them!!
